

In praises of Lord Nityananda Prabhu

Written by Prabhu Jagadbandhu

Who is begging around in the guise of a downright destitute?
The unadulterated and unconditional giver of love,
Lord Netai (Nityananda) must have come to Nadia!
Raising and bouncing the arms and in extreme humility and passion,
He provides tender mercy to all the living beings of this Dark Age (Kali).
He ardently urges us to chant the name of Hari (the lord supreme),
And assures us all that there is nothing to fear in life as a result,
And further pledges that He got the scarcest wealth for all of us to take from him as much as we please!
Such an emblem of love and kindness is nowhere else to be found!
He embraces one and all of high of low casts as he drenches Himself with ceaseless tears.
Prabhu roars and re-roars in extreme passion as He feels that the expanse of evil time of the Dark Age has ended (at the advent of Sri Nityananda Prabhu), Amidst the flood of love spanning the heaven, earth and infernal regions with the communion of Guru (Nityananda) and Bandhu (Prabhu Jagadbandhu Himself) at this juncture.
